

JO-ANNE BUND

GENERAL COUNSEL AND CORPORATE SECRETARY

As General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, Jo-Anne Bund is responsible for all legal matters across the organization and works closely with Energy Safety Canada's Board of Directors on matters of corporate governance.

Jo-Anne was appointed to the position on January 21, 2020, bringing more than 20 years experience in various legal roles, particularly in the energy sector.

Jo-Anne has served as Senior Legal Counsel and Corporate Secretary with public and private companies, providing legal oversight on a variety of legal matters, including commercial agreements and other financial matters, acquisitions, governance and disclosure and regulatory compliance. As former Senior Legal Counsel with the Alberta Securities Commission, Jo-Anne worked with securities commissions across Canada on rulemaking and policy development initiatives.

Jo-Anne holds degrees in law from the University of Calgary and in International Development Studies from the University of Toronto.

ENERGY
SAFETY
CANADA